This four-bedroom, 2.5 bath, split-level dwelling is centrally located in the Brandywine Hundred and is within walking distance of the community pool, elementary school and shopping. The spacious living room has a fireplace and bay window, and opens onto the dining room and kitchen. Upstairs there are three bedrooms with lots of closet space, plus a fourth bedroom or office sharing a hall bathroom. The main bedroom suite includes a retro tile bath with stall shower. A common room and adjacent workshop/utility room are on the lower level with access to a one-car garage. This house is well maintained. The roof and most windows were recently replaced and the HVAC is new. The large private rear yard and deck are screened by landscaping and an 8x8 shed.
